Library COVID-19 Update

As of Tuesday, February 16, 2021, the Chester County Library has begun phase four of our reopening plan. We are still offering curbside pickup on all items. However, patrons are now able to enter the library to browse, use the computers, and make copies. A limited number of computers are available. Computer sessions are limited to one hour, per person, per day.

Please know that we are doing everything we can to remain open to serve our community in every way possible. If you have any questions or concerns, please contact the library director (Savannah Gilbert) by phone at 731-989-4673 or by email at library@chestercountylibrary.net.
